

Please note that this communication is sent to notify me of my opposition to the weakening of the Indiana telephone privacy law. The law, as is now stands, has eliminated nearly all unwanted telemarketing calls. I do not wish to receive telemarketing calls from anyone, in particular any entity that I have a business relationship with. If I am in need of additional services from any business relationship that I have, I am more than willing to call them myself.